

NEWS

A colourful cast of characters – the presentees!

Queen Ella Black and the 2024 Children's Fair Festival Retinue are ready for the show. (Pics: Michael Gillen)

The Tartan Army from St Mary's Primary School were hoping for more success than the national team!

These young ravers look like they've taken some lessons off their folks about partying in the 90s!

Bo'ness Public Primary opted to go back to their parents era with their 90s Rhythm Nation.

Thousands of onlookers were in attendance in the Glebe as the primary pupils took to the stage.

Grange Primary pupils presented A Little Bit of Country and looked incredible in their cowboy hats and boots.

Cruella was the theme for the boys and girls at Kinneil Primary in their amazing red, white and black outfits.

The boys and girls at Queen Ella Black's school, Deanburn Primary, opted for a Willy Wonka theme.